The Honorable William E. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

I am most embarrassed to realize that I failed to write you in thanks for the very fine reception at the Agency that you arranged for my Norwegian American friends from the O.S.S. days. [ ] gave them a splendid talk and the security staff was particularly considerate in the way they handled them and helped some of the slightly infirm ones to get around the corridors. I don't know how I omitted sending this thank you, but I did, and I apologize for that. At the same time, I express both my and the group's deep appreciation for your courtesy in arranging that most pleasant and interesting visit.

Again, good luck to you in your continuing responsibilities and in the moves you are making to improve the intelligence process.

All best regards.

[ ]

W.E. Colby
